

ST. PAUL CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sunday, January 1, 2023: Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God

CHRIS STEFANICK

Living Joy Book Club

St. Paul is giving everyone a book for Christmas! We are hoping to form Book Clubs like we have done in the past, to unite parishioners to talk about the book. We would like everyone to sign up for a book club, either in your neighborhood or through your already existing parish group. To become a member of a book club, please visit spcatholic.org/christmasbookclub. We will connect you with a book club!

Help Needed to Remove Christmas Decorations

Below is an opportunity available if you are able to help remove Christmas decorations from the Worship Space.

January 9th: At 1:30 pm we need to take down all Christmas decor and return it to the off-site storage space. This job usually takes less time than setting up but also has many jobs and needs a couple of people with trucks to move all of it.

Please email walkerdesign619@gmail.com to confirm your availability to help. All helpers are sincerely appreciated.

St. Paul Capital Campaign

It is with great excitement and joy that we announce the Capital Campaign for our new beautiful church! We have waited years for this moment to arrive. What was once a dream and hope is now very close to becoming a reality for our parish community.

We thank all of you for your positive support of this very important project. With your help, we will accomplish this sacred mission entrusted to us for the good of St. Paul Parish and for the future generations of Catholics yet to come. For more information and to donate, visit spcatholic.org/capitalcampaign.
